

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are a small number of people who I would like to thank for their assistance with the research of the 2002-2010 period. In particular I am grateful to Rob Lewis for helping me source the official publications of the Greater London Authority. Additionally, Keith Ferry was kind enough to bring to my attention the availability of detailed ward-by-ward breakdowns of voting figures at the Greater London Authority elections of 2004 and 2008.

During the 2010 Borough Election I received valuable help from the staff of the Civic Centre Reference Library, Station Road, Harrow and from Elaine McEachron, Electoral Services Manager at the London Borough of Harrow.
