Note:

2006: Mrs. Kinnear was expelled from the Conservative Group in February 2009 for "a series of serious breaches" of Group rules.

2010: Borgese, Mrs. Kinnear and Mrs. Jones told the local press that they were "separate candidates" who were united with the aim of "representing residents without political party influence."

Gawn appeared at Hendon Magistrates' Court in January 2012 on a charge of trying to steal £7,000 from a Dennis O'Brien on 5 August 2011, a charge which he denied. The case was adjourned until February 2012, and then re-adjourned until 15 March 2012 when Magistrates dismissed the case under Section 6 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980: namely, that there was insufficient evidence to put the defendant on trial by jury because a prima facie case had not been established. Gawn was suspended from the Council's Labour Group during this period.
