

INDEX TO CANDIDATES

Section One - - - Candidates at Harrow Council Elections

This section of the index relates to elections to Harrow Council for the period 1978 to 2001 and excludes candidates for elections featured in the Appendices, which appear in section two.

The number or numbers following the name of each candidate indicates the ward reference number at the top of the page. Those candidates with double surnames (hyphenated and unhyphenated) have been cross-indexed to ease reference.

An asterisk preceding the name of a candidate indicates that his or her name will also be found in section one of the index to Harrow Votes: The London Borough of Harrow, 1964-1977. A cross preceding the name indicates that the name will also be found in section one of the index to Harrow Votes: The Municipal Borough of Harrow, 1954-1963 only. This information should be useful when tracing candidates in the pre- and post-1978 election periods.

Section Two - - - Candidates at Parliamentary and other Elections

This section of the index relates to Parliamentary, Greater London Council, European Parliament, London Mayor and Greater London Assembly elections in Harrow for the period 1978 to 2001.

The letter or letters following the name of each candidate indicates the type of election contested: p for Parliamentary, g for Greater London Council, e for European Parliament, and m for London Mayor and GLA elections. List candidates for the European Parliament and Greater London Assembly have not been included. An asterisk preceding the name of a candidate indicates that his or her name will also be found in section two of the index to Harrow Votes: The London Borough of Harrow 1964-1977.

Note: There is the potential for confusion surrounding Hains' name. He was commonly known as 'Dick', but this has led to some sources reporting his first name as 'Richard'. Principal among those are:

1. The Times Guide to the House of Commons 1979, p. 101, when Hains was a Parliamentary candidate in the Ealing Southall constituency;
2. The Times Guide to the House of Commons 1983, p. 130, when he was a candidate in the Harrow East constituency;
3. The Liberal Democrat History Group in their biographies of Liberal / Liberal Democrat / SDP Parliamentary candidates for the Greater London Region at: <https://liberalhistory.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2017/04/Candidates-Greater-London.pdf>

It should be noted that Hains also contested Walsall South and Birmingham Northfield at the February and October 1974 General Elections, respectively: the Times Guides for those elections reported that his first name was 'David'. When Hains contested elections in Harrow he always appeared on official notices as 'Hains, David (commonly known as Dick)': he was therefore recorded as David Hains in this book, in the Greater London Council's London Borough Council Elections 6 May 1982, pp. 32 & 102, and in the London Residuary Body's London Borough Council Elections 8 May 1986, p. 35. F.W.S. Craig in British Parliamentary Election Results 1974-1983 did not record the forenames of candidates, so Hains appears as 'D. Hains' throughout (pp. 41, 70, 248 & 356), and never as 'R.Hains'.
