

INDEX TO CANDIDATES — PARLIAMENTARY, MCC AND GUARDIANS ELECTIONS

This section of the index relates to Parliamentary (1885-1941), Middlesex County Council (1889-1936) and Hendon Union Board of Guardians (1894-1928) elections. The letter following the name of each candidate indicates the type of election contested: p for Parliamentary, m for Middlesex County Council and h for Hendon Union Board of Guardians.

Those candidates with double surnames (hyphenated and unhyphenated) have been cross-indexed to ease reference.

Note: There has been uncertainty surrounding Grant's name. Craig's British Parliamentary Election Results, 1885-1918 lists him as "J.C. Grant"; Leigh Rayment as "Corrie Brighton Grant"; and Debrett's House of Commons and the Judicial Bench 1901 as "Corrie Grant", the son of James Brighton Grant. During the 1899 by-election the Harrow local press only ever referred to him as "Corrie Grant" and Grant is also shown as such in the London Gazette returns of the 1900 and 1906 General Elections, when he was elected MP for the Rugby division of Warwickshire. However, Registers of Electors for the Acton Parliamentary division of Middlesex from the early 1920s confirm that Grant's full name was Corrie Brighton Grant — he lived at an address in The Avenue, Bedford Park, Acton.
