

Appendix P

PARLIAMENTARY AND GLA ELECTIONS IN HARROW, 2002-2021

This Appendix presents results for Parliamentary, European Parliament, Mayor of London and Greater London Assembly (GLA) Elections. The format is similar to the main results tables except for the inclusion of an extra column showing the % share of the vote achieved by each candidate. An asterisk (*) indicates a forfeited deposit. Turnout is based on the number of valid votes cast, and a cross (+) before the name of a candidate in 2005 indicates a member of the previous (2001-2005) Parliament, or in 2004 indicates a member of the previous (2000-2004) GLA or the previous (1999-2004) European Parliament.

Polling dates for the various elections were as follows:

Parliamentary	2005	Thursday 5 May	2017	Thursday 8 June
	2010	Thursday 6 May	2019	Thursday 12 December
	2015	Thursday 7 May
European	2004	Thursday 10 June	2014	Thursday 22 May
	2009	Thursday 4 June	2019	Thursday 23 May
Mayor/GLA	2004	Thursday 10 June	2016	Thursday 5 May
	2008	Thursday 1 May	2021	Thursday 6 May
	2012	Thursday 3 May

At the 1999 European Parliament Election an ordered party regional list (without choice) form of proportional representation was used for the first time. Seats were allocated between lists in proportion to the votes received using the d'Hondt (largest average) method. (See E. Lakeman and J.D. Lambert, Voting in Democracies, Faber and Faber, London, 1955, p. 87.) Harrow formed part of the London region, which returned 10 MEPs. For the first time voting statistics at the Parliamentary constituency level were made available. As a result of 10 new member states joining the European Union in May 2004, the total number of MEPs from the United Kingdom was reduced from 87 to 78 at the 2004 election. As a consequence, representation for London fell from 10 to 9 MEPs. A further enlargement of the European Union meant that at the June 2009 election the United Kingdom was entitled to a total of 72 MEPs and the representation of London dropped from 9 to 8 members. In December 2011 a 73rd member from the UK (Anthea McIntyre, Conservative, West Midlands constituency) was allocated to England because of the implementation of the Treaty of Lisbon. At the end of January 2020 MEPs from the UK retired from the European Parliament following the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union.

Like 2000, the 2004 and subsequent Mayor of London elections used the Supplementary Vote system. If no candidate secured over half of the first choice votes, then all but the top two candidates were eliminated. Any valid second choice votes from those eliminated were allocated to the two candidates left in the race.

As in 2000, the 2004 and subsequent Greater London Assembly was elected by an Additional Member System. Fourteen members were elected from traditional constituencies by the first-past-the-post method. The London Boroughs of Brent and Harrow were combined to form one of these constituencies. Voters also cast ballots for the additional eleven members of the GLA, by voting for a party list or for individual candidates. Having taken into account seats won by each party from the constituencies, the additional seats were allocated (using the d'Hondt formula) among those parties winning over 5% of the entire London vote. (See Electing the Mayor and the London Assembly, a pamphlet published by the Electoral Reform Society, for further information. Alternatively, consult House of Commons Library Research Paper 00/53: The Local Elections and Elections for a London Mayor and Assembly, 4 May 2000.) It is likely that the voting system continued to cause considerable confusion at the 2004 election: there were many rejected ballot papers, especially for the constituency member of the GLA. The 2020 Mayor of London and GLA election was postponed for a year under the provisions of section 57(1) of the Coronavirus Bill 2020; section 57(2) extended the term of office of the Mayor and Assembly Members by a year to May 2021.

Candidates at Parliamentary elections forfeited their deposit of £500 if they secured less than 5.0% of the valid poll. Political parties or individual candidates were required to lodge a deposit of £5,000 for European Parliament elections, but this was returned if 2.5% or more of the valid poll was secured. Candidates for Mayor of London forfeited their £10,000 deposit if polling less than 5.0%, whilst GLA constituency candidates were required to lodge a £1,000 deposit with the threshold also 5.0%. The deposit figure for political parties or individual candidates contesting GLA list elections is £5,000, returnable with 2.5% or more of the valid poll.

Note:

2010: Ms. Lauder-Atkins contested the election using the shorter version (Atkins) of her surname.

2015: Ms. Asante-Twumasi contested the election using the shorter version (Asante) of her surname.

2019: A Green Party candidate, Emma J. Wallace, was validly nominated to contest this election. Ms. Wallace later withdrew her nomination papers within the allowed time, saying, in a statement, that she did "not want to split the left vote" and advised her supporters to vote for Ms. Fitzpatrick. The statement added: "Whilst there are a number of differences between the Labour Party and the Green Party, we believe Pamela Fitzpatrick is a progressive voice, one that is committed to working with the local, Harrow East community and standing up for all their best interests. We hope to work with her towards securing proportional representation and the implementation of a Green New Deal."

Note:

2005: Daver was a former chairman of the Harrow Council Tax Campaign and was nominated by its founder, Stanley Sheinwald.

2010: A nomination paper in the name of Thomas, describing him as 'The Labour and Co-operative Party candidate', was withdrawn. As the Co-operative Party had not registered an emblem with the Electoral Commission for use on ballot papers, Thomas would have been unable to use the Labour Party emblem had he persisted with the nomination. A substitute paper describing him as 'The Labour Party candidate' was lodged; Thomas was, however, an official joint candidate of the two parties and has been designated as such.

					16,394	30.9

Note:

2019: Ms. Assadullah contested the election using the shorter version (Assad) of her surname.

Ms. Blackwell was the mother of Josh McGuinness, one of three young men who lost their lives in January 2018 when on their way to a birthday party in Hayes; a car mounted the pavement they were walking along and struck them with considerable force. She was dissatisfied with the Police investigation and believed a "cover-up" had taken place.

Wilson claimed that by standing as an independent he would be in a position, if elected, to "be a delegate representing you the constituents first and foremost." He supported the construction of a third runway at Heathrow Airport, was opposed to the HS2 rail project, and was a 'Eurosceptic' believing that the United Kingdom should leave on terms that did not make it "a vassal state" of the European Union.

Note:

2004-2008: Ms. German was a member of the Socialist Workers' Party.

2008: O'Connor — founder and spokesman for the campaigning group Fathers 4 Justice — withdrew from the election on 25 April.

2008-2012: Johnson contested the election using the single forename (Boris) that he was usually known by.

2021: Webb's description on the ballot paper was "Fresh Choice for London". He was, however, the official candidate of UKIP, and has been designated as such.

2016: Goldsmith contested the election using the single forename (Zac) that he was usually known by. Zylinski, a Polish aristocrat from old Russian nobility, styled himself Prince John Zylinski, and contested the election as such.

2021: Count Binface was a satirical political character created by the British comedian Jonathan D. Harvey. A number of minor political parties contested the 2021 Mayor of London and Greater London Authority elections. The following party abbreviations, additional to those listed on page 7, have been used:

Real	London Real Party
Reclaim	The Reclaim Party
LLL	Let London Live
Binface	Count Binface for Mayor of London
Heritage	The Heritage Party
