Note: The first Parish Meeting to elect councillors was held at the National Schools on 4 December with Mr. George Donaldson in the Chair during the election. A total of 26 nomination papers were submitted, but once duplicate nominations had been excluded, the 19 shown above proceeded to the show of hands. According to the Watford Observer, the voting "took some considerable time" and that "many voted for more than nine candidates, so that the practical value of the vote was nil". A poll was demanded. The poll resulted in the election of Jackson, H. Blomeley and Berwick in place of Woodman, Ham and Lawford.

The result of the poll indicates that the turnout was at least 45.7%.

The Watford Observer gave a brief description of polling day: "As in other parishes throughout the country there was an attempt at Stanmore to get as many working men on the new Rural District and Parish Councils, and although there is a splendid mixture of interest on the Parish Council, it is pleasing to observe that the electors have re-placed their confidence in the old and well-tried Guardians and old members of the now defunct Rural Sanitary Authority. Mr. Greenhill, of Harrow, was the presiding officer, and he superintended the double election at the National Schools, Great Stanmore Hill. Carriages were flying about during the day to bring voters to the poll, and their efforts at assisting the candidates were very successful, for a good poll was secured. Owing to a delay on the part of the Returning Officer — Mr. Seabrook having been kept at Pinner until early in the morning — counting was not begun until some time after midnight. As usual, District Council votes were counted first, and the result of the poll was declared ... about two o'clock."
