* George Donaldson of 'Lymes Holme', Great Stanmore, was elected Chairman of the Parish Council at its first meeting in January 1895, and at the 1895, 1896 and 1897 Annual Meetings. Although he was a prominent parishioner he was not a parish councillor.

† Resigned from the Council October 1913. J. Bransgrove elected Chairman.

‡ Some important records for Great Stanmore have not yet been found, so the compilation of a comprehensive record of Chairmen and Vice-Chairmen is currently restricted to the periods 1895-1914 and 1925-1934.

In a Kelly's Directory printed for the 1923 calendar year Bransgrove is recorded as the Chairman and Kirby as the Vice-Chairman of the Parish Council. Bransgrove has also been described as the Chairman of the Council in some local newspaper articles from 1919, 1920 and 1922. It seems likely that Bransgrove and Kirby served continuously for the period October 1913 to 1928.

According to the Minutes of the Council, no Vice-Chairman was elected at the Annual Meetings in 1897 or 1909. During the 1897-98 Municipal Year different councillors took the chair when Kekewich was unavailable. In the latter case (1909-10 Municipal Year) it may have been an oversight by the clerk when writing the Minutes and that Wainwright was elected to continue as Vice-Chairman.
