Note:

2026: In mid-April 2026, after the close of nominations, Jackson's membership of the Conservative Party was suspended when it was disclosed that he had made a number of social media posts that were described by a party spokesman as "wholly unacceptable". Due to electoral law, the suspension had no effect on his position as a nominated candidate and his ballot paper description remained 'Conservative Party Candidate'. Immediately after the election Harrow Council's web site described Jackson as an "Independent" councillor. Votes cast for him have been included in aggregate statistics for the Conservative Party. See Appendix K for further details.
