

Appendix G

PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCIES

The composition of the Parliamentary Constituencies in Harrow at the time of the 1979 General Election is given below. Where a ward was divided between two constituencies, the percentage of the ward's electors in the constituency, using figures from the 1978 Register of Electors, is shown.

Harrow Central	Harrow East	Harrow West
Greenhill	Canons	Headstone North
Harrow on the Hill	Stanmore Park	Pinner
Marlborough	Stanmore South	Pinner West
Centenary (27.8%)	Centenary (72.2%)	Rayners Lane
Harrow Weald (0.8%)	Harrow Weald (99.2%)	Roxbourne
Headstone South (32.8%)	Hatch End (18.5%)	Roxeth
Kenton East (25.7%)	Kenton East (74.3%)	Hatch End (81.5%)
Kenton West (86.9%)	Kenton West (13.1%)	Headstone South (67.2%)
Ridgeway (68.4%)	Wealdstone (23.7%)	Ridgeway (31.6%)
Wealdstone (76.3%)	Wemborough (81.3%)
Wemborough (18.7%)

In February 1983 the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for England recommended that Harrow be divided into two constituencies. The composition of the constituencies, first used for the 1983 General Election, are given below.

Harrow East	Harrow West
Canons	Harrow on the Hill
Centenary	Hatch End
Greenhill	Headstone North
Harrow Weald	Headstone South
Kenton East	Pinner
Kenton West	Pinner West
Marlborough	Rayners Lane
Stanmore Park	Ridgeway
Stanmore South	Roxbourne
Wealdstone	Roxeth
Wemborough	