

Appendix G

PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCIES

The composition of the Parliamentary Constituencies in Harrow at the time of the 1979 General Election is given below. Where a ward was divided between two constituencies, the percentage of the ward's electors in the constituency, using figures from the 1978 Register of Electors, is shown.

Harrow Central

Greenhill
Harrow on the Hill
Marlborough
Centenary (27.8%)
Harrow Weald (0.8%)
Headstone South (32.8%)
Kenton East (25.7%)
Kenton West (86.9%)
Ridgeway (68.4%)
Wealdstone (76.3%)
Wemborough (18.7%)

Harrow East

Canons
Stanmore Park
Stanmore South
Centenary (72.2%)
Harrow Weald (99.2%)
Hatch End (18.5%)
Kenton East (74.3%)
Kenton West (13.1%)
Wealdstone (23.7%)
Wemborough (81.3%)

Harrow West

Headstone North
Pinner
Pinner West
Rayners Lane
Roxbourne
Roxeth
Hatch End (81.5%)
Headstone South (67.2%)
Ridgeway (31.6%)

In February 1983 the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for England recommended that Harrow be divided into two constituencies. The composition of the constituencies, first used for the 1983 General Election, are given below.

Harrow East

Canons
Centenary
Greenhill
Harrow Weald
Kenton East
Kenton West
Marlborough
Stanmore Park
Stanmore South
Wealdstone
Wemborough

Harrow West

Harrow on the Hill
Hatch End
Headstone North
Headstone South
Pinner
Pinner West
Rayners Lane
Ridgeway
Roxbourne
Roxeth